

About Mondi Kraft Paper

Mondi Kraft Paper, a Business Unit of the Europe & International Division, is a leading European supplier of a wide range of sack kraft papers, speciality kraft papers and bleached as well as unbleached market pulp. The Business Unit operates six production sites and offers high-quality paper grades. The focus is on excellent runnability as well as printability, optimised converting machine productivity and customised packaging features. Mondi Kraft Paper invests in innovative research facilities and cutting edge technology. Its commitment is reflected in its investments in the R&D Innovation, the Bag Application Centres and the recently opened food safety laboratory, where packaging solutions are developed and tested in close cooperation with customers.

About Mondi

Mondi is an international packaging and paper Group, with production operations across 28 countries and revenues of €5.7 billion in 2011. The Group's key operations are located in central Europe, Russia and South Africa and as at the end of 2011, Mondi Group employed 23,400 people.

Mondi Group is fully integrated across the paper and packaging process, from the growing of wood and the manufacture of pulp and paper (including recycled paper), to the conversion of packaging paper into corrugated packaging, industrial bags and coatings.

The Group is principally involved in the manufacture of packaging paper, converted packaging products and uncoated fine paper (UFP).

Mondi Group has a dual listed company structure, with a primary listing on the JSE Limited for Mondi Limited under the ticker code MND and a premium listing on the London Stock Exchange for Mondi plc, under the ticker code MNDI. The Group has been recognised for its sustainability through its inclusion in the FTSE4Good Global, European and UK Index Series (since 2008) and the JSE's Socially Responsible Investment (SRI) Index since 2007. The Group was also included in the FTSE350 Carbon Disclosure Leadership Index for the second year.
